INTEGRITY COMMISSION REFERS ISSUE TO THE POLICE

The Integrity Commission of Trinidad and Tobago has noted with deep regret an article in the NEWSDAY Newspaper of today's date, December 20th 2011 which has sensationalized an internal matter to the Commission.

The Commission categorically denies that there is any "bitter row" between members of the Commission as reported in this article. The deliberations and functions of the Commission are always conducted in a manner which takes into consideration healthy disagreement amongst its members with a view to a proper and civilized resolution of those matters.

Regarding any allegations involving breaches of confidentiality or unlawful disclosure of information, alluded to in the article, the Commission views this very seriously. Steps have already been taken to seek the assistance of the Commissioner of Police to commence a thorough investigation into whether any information or records of the Commission have been disclosed to any unauthorized persons.

*COMMISSIONERS: Mr. Kenneth Gordon, Chairman; Madam Justice Gladys Gafoor, Deputy Chairman;
Mr. Neil Rolingson; Professor Ann Marie Bissessar; Mr. Seunarine Johhoo.*
