

The Do Right Caravan Visits South Schools

An Increasing number of schools have joined "The Do Right Champions" competition, working to produce Poems, Short Stories, Cartoons and Scenarios/Skits in time for the November 7th deadline.

The competition, which seeks to foster an understanding of the standards of Integrity in our Primary and Secondary Schools, is a venture of The Integrity Commission of Trinidad and Tobago.

The competition is open to Primary School Students aged 7 – 12 years and Secondary School Students in Forms 1 – 3. Registration forms are available from all school principals.

Representatives of The Integrity Commission have been visiting schools across Trinidad and Tobago to promote the competition.

Students can win fantastic prizes including Nintendo Wiis, iPads, iPod Touch, Kobo E-reader from and Book Vouchers from Nigel R. Khan Booksellers, Unit Trust Vouchers, BMX Bicycles, Art Supplies, Theatre Camp Sponsorship and Jansport Book Bags. Participating schools can also win Smart Boards, Projectors, Sporting and Musical Equipment.

